Dear Library Patron

The library facility has been undergoing renovation for a full year now. We're glad to serve our community with computers and printing, new books and magazines, interlibrary loan, notary and reference services, but we sure miss our busy program and event offerings, full schedule, and—of course—our larger book collection! Please accept our warmest holiday wishes and join us in eager anticipation of returning home to our "new old" library in the coming months.

Be well; be well informed.
