On Wednesday morning, September 11th, Patriots Day, Freehold Borough will be joining with communities large and small remembering those who died as the result of the attacks on the twin towers of the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and the unsuccessful attack on our Capital thwarted by the heroic passengers of United flight 93. You are invited to gather at the Borough Hall, 51 West Main St., for a remembrance wreath laying, honoring the memories of those who died as a result of those attacks. The ceremony is timed to coincide with the moment of the first attack on the World Trade Center. Solemn bagpipe refrains will be part of the prelude and postlude to the ceremony, as well as an accompaniment to the wreath laying. The Borough fire bell will toll for each of the eight residents of Freehold Borough and Freehold Township who were killed that day. Other participants in the wreath laying remembrance will be members of American Legion Post 54, Borough first responders, clergy, and members of the Borough Human Relations Advisory Committee. Mayor J. Nolan Higgins will address the gathering with reflections on the call to be a patriot.
