Dear Library Patron:

As of this writing, we don’t have a date for reopening of the library building.

We, too, find not knowing an uncomfortable sensation. The interruption in your library’s operation is, of course, in the interests of your safety and well-being, as well as for the staff, volunteers, and our community partners. We’d love to “get back to normal,” but are realistic, and anticipate that “normal” will be different from what it was before this novel coronavirus entered our lives. At least for the foreseeable future.

When we do resume our “brick and mortar” operation, it will probably be in “phases.” Undoubtedly, there will be very specific requirements including social-distancing, occupancy limits and sanitation requirements. As the policies and procedures are developed, we’ll be sure to share them with you.

In the meantime, we are dedicated to a continuity of services and access to resources as much as possible given the state of emergency guidelines. Please take a minute to answer this survey to help us plan to best serve you.

One thing seems certain: our events and programs will be hosted remotely for some time. We are working with community partners to provide not only access to information, but asynchronous events (that you can access at your convenience) such as YouTube videos, and synchronous programs using platforms such as Zoom. These events will be shared via our Facebook presence, as well as in real-time updates to this Newsletter (which you may revisit at any time).

On a more personal note, I’d like to share that all of the library staff are well. It is our sincere hope that each of you, our precious library patrons, remains in good health and high spirits. If you or someone you know would like a telephone call from a library staff member (for information or just a friendly chat), please let us know.

Sincerely,
Kathy Mulholland
Library Director

What kinds of virtual programming do YOU want?

Please take this brief survey to let us know what kinds of online programs, events and resources you’d like us to provide. Or just email Kathy at kmulholland@freeholdpubliclibrary.org.

Note: We know everyone’s getting a little (or a lot!) “zoomed-out.” Remember, in all things, the library is here for you (not the other way around!). Please utilize any of our resources as you find helpful, entertaining or informative.

Summer Program Update

The library’s summer core programs will be provided online, and may be supplemented by on-site options as emergency restrictions are eased. Our Summer Programs Portal will be READSquared. More info to follow!

NJ Library Construction Bond Grant Update:

Due to the pandemic, the application schedule for the state grant has been pushed-back to June. This shifts the whole calendar, so we won't even know if we will receive the grant until at least the fall. Fingers crossed!
