Borough of Freehold

State of Emergency

Effective January 22, 2016 at 10:00 pm, I hereby declare a State of Emergency for the Borough of Freehold. I urge residents to remain off of our streets until the storm passes, and roads made clear. Please remove all debris from the curb line until the storm passed. Please attempt every effort to park your car off of the road. I request that all residents follow careful and prudent thought in all actions taken during this emergency. I also request all possible assistance from New Jersey State and Monmouth County agencies.
