The Library is now open Saturdays
through the summer,
10 am - 4 pm

Except...
Closed 7/6; 8/17* & 8/31

*Open if Olde Freehold Day is rained-out.

Summer is for reading!

If you haven't already, now is a great time to take-up Teri's 2019 Reading Challenge:

1. Book on your "to be read" list
2. Book showcasing music
3. NJ author not read before
4. Recommended book
5. Book chosen for its cover
6. Book with a dog on the cover
7. Book with the word "library" or "book" in title
8. Book involving a holiday
9. Book you can read in a day (<200 pages)
10. Book of short stories
11. Nonfiction (not biography)
12. A classic

Remember the library has many ebooks and digital audiobooks available via eLibraryNJ.com. Enjoy this collection via your tablet, smartphone, computer, or other capable media system.

If you prefer "paper books," why not buy a new "Freehold Public Library" tote bag ($3.00 each) to carry them all! Support the library and "go green" at the same time.

Kathy Mucholland

Library Director

The group will not meet in July

On August 7, the group will discuss Britt-Marie Was Here by J. Frederik Backman. September's book is Gabrielle Zevin's Storied Life of A. J. Fikry.

Contact Teri Stich at the library for more information about the library's book group.

Stop by the Friends' Booth at Olde Freehold Day on Saturday, August 17, starting at noon. Old Freehold Day is held at Lake Topanemus Park, Freehold Township. Parking is at Robertsville Road entrance, or take the FREE shuttle from behind the Monmouth County Court House.

Watch for special Friends of the Library fundraiser events and programs through the summer and fall. New members always welcome.

Bring old/damaged
American Flags to the library.

The flags will be respectfully retired in a special ceremony in the fall.
