Construction Update from the Library Trustees

The Library Trustees are thrilled that our vision for a new and improved library facility is finally happening. Planning for this renovation project started nearly 7 years ago in 2016.

The library was built in 1904 and has served the community for more than a century. As many of you know, the building had fallen into disrepair and was in violation of modern building codes. The Trustees were faced with the decision to recommend a major renovation, or close the library building.

The decision became clear when the New Jersey taxpayers authorized the state to fund a library renovation grant program in 2017. We applied through a competitive process, and were awarded more than $850,000 in grant funding from the State of New Jersey. You read that right - this grant is free to the Borough! Who would say no to free money?

The Borough also funded $1.4 million in construction bonds to pay our share of the renovation costs. Construction bonds are like a mortgage: the Borough borrows money and makes principal and interest payments over a 20-year period to pay the money back. The Borough did not spend $1.4 million upfront.

How are we paying for this borrowing? The Trustees eliminated a full-time library position, which allowed us to save both salary and benefits costs. These savings were enough to fund the original construction budget at no additional cost to the taxpayers.

The renovation will move the library into the 21st century, where libraries are so much more than books. They are community assets where the public can gather in meeting spaces. They offer electronic access points with public Wi-Fi and public computers. They are foundational to an intimate and walkable downtown. Can you imagine Freehold Borough without our Carnegie Library?

What will this renovation get us?

- The entire ground floor will be fully renovated and available for public use!
- The building will be in compliance with all ADA requirements. It will be stroller and wheelchair friendly!
- Totally new electrical systems to power all our 21st century library experience!
- Totally new HVAC systems to make your library experience comfortable!

During construction you'll be able to find our librarians in Borough Hall, where you'll be able to access computers, and new books will be available for circulation. And of course all electronic books, videos and other content will remain available during construction.

We look forward to the end of 2023 when we can celebrate completion of the renovation project together. Thank you for supporting our wonderful Freehold Public Library!
